Sir,

In forwarding herewith Closepet Divisional Officer's Yadi No 1058 dated 3rd January 1907, re the Opening of a road from Kodamballi to Sujarajpur in the Channapatna Taluk, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Channapatna reports that one Anamanchey Gowda of Survamanya Kondapur petitioned him to permit the Opening of the road at his own cost for the convenience of the public resorting to Sujarajpur and other "Santeys" and for doing which the petitioner may be allowed to fell some jungle trees standing in the way.

2. The land on which this road is proposed to be opened is Government waste land, no occupied lands intervene, the trees to be removed coming up to 4 or 5 cart loads.

3. I therefore request you to obtain sanction of Government for the removal of the trees, as well as the laying out of a road which the Amildar recommends would be the shortest cut to Singarajpur from Kodambelli and other villages.
